

ULI Philadelphia

The Urban Land Institute, Philadelphia District Council presents the

BALLARD
SPAHR
ANDREWS &
INGERSOLL, LLP

Special Jersey Shore Meeting with ULI Northern NJ:

“The Future of Atlantic City & its Impact on the Region”

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2006

4:00 p.m. Registration • 4:30 p.m. Program • 6:00 p.m. Networking Reception

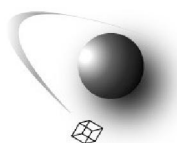

Sheraton Atlantic City Convention Center Hotel – Crown Ballroom
Two Miss America Way, Atlantic City, NJ

SUPPORTING SPONSORS

creative land use design

LandDimensions
ENGINEERING

FOX ♦ ROTHSCHILD<sub>LLP</sub>
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

DIRECTIONS: From North: Garden State Parkway south to Exit 38 (Atlantic City Expressway). At the end, turn left on Artie, left at the second light onto Michigan, straight to hotel entrance. From NJ Turnpike or Garden State Parkway: Atlantic City Expressway east, then follow directions above. From South: I-95 North to 76 East over Walt Whitman Bridge. Follow 42 South to Atlantic City Expressway, follow directions above. Or take the train – NJ Transit from 30th Street Station or Cherry Hill – directly to the hotel.

Development in and around Atlantic City is having an enormous impact on the entire region. Get a first-hand look at how gaming is changing both the Shore and the mainland -- from entertainment and retail to residential and commercial developments, at this first-ever meeting of ULI – the Urban Land Institute in Atlantic City.

WELCOME: CARL E. DRANOFF, Chairman of ULI Philadelphia, and President, Dranoff Properties.

SPEAKERS:

THOMAS D. CARVER, Executive Director, Casino Reinvestment Development Authority, with an overview, history, and future plans.

GARY BLOCK, Vice President, The Cordish Company, Project Manager for the new “Walk,” which will soon double in size, on the emergence of the entertainment retail sector.

THOMAS SCANNAPIECO, CEO, Scannapieco Development Company, developer of The Bella, on the growth of the luxury residential market at the Shore and the mainland, and the influx of national developers.