Region's Premier Career Expo Offers Expanded Employment Forum.

PRESS OF ATLANTIC CITY ANNOUNCES
2003 CAREER EXPO

The Press of Atlantic City announces the Careers and Employment Expo 2003 will be held on Monday, June 9, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., at the Hamilton Mall in Mays Landing.

Job seekers attending the Career Expo will meet with key employers in the region, representing casinos, healthcare, print and broadcast media, banking and others industries. The expanded career forum will focus on employment opportunities, education and job training.

A special guide and map for the Career Expo will appear as a supplement in the Sunday edition of the Press, June 8.

Career Expo information will be available in several editions of The Press; in the Careers & Employment 2003 Press supplement; on the web site, at www.PressofAtlanticCity.com and in fliers throughout the community.

Career Expo attendees will also be eligible to win valuable computer training, concert tickets and more, by completing entry forms available at the Expo.

Exhibitors and attendees have identified this event as the most productive career fair in the region, representing premier businesses, and attracting qualified job seekers.

The Press of Atlantic City serves over 270,000 readers in Atlantic, Cape May, Cumberland and Southern Ocean counties. Under the corporate umbrella of The Press of Atlantic City Media Group, other publications include At The Shore, Real Estate Monthly, The Getaway Guide and the internet site, PressofAtlanticCity.com.
